

FRIDAY 4TH
OCTOBER

Alderman Bolton Newsletter

This week in 1/2D...

In class 1/2D, we have just finished our 'hot writes' about searching for a new best friend. Our hot writes were written beautifully and lots of us remembered capital letters, full stops and we used very small letter formations.

Toby F struggled to find a friend as, "some were too big and some were too skinny!"

Niamh F wrote about a wolf eating her best friend, because she was so tasty, so she had to go on a search to replace her!

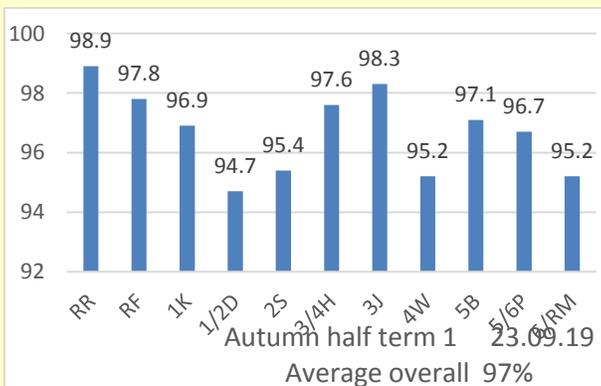

In History, class 1/2D have been looking at how toys have changed over time. We now know that the toys our grandparents played with are very different to the ones in the present day. We have a lot of electrical toys and Play Stations, whereas our grandparents had to be inventive and make up games using marbles and draw their own hopscotch!

Lewis H said in his 1940's Toy Review that he would like playing with the marbles, as you don't have to move around very much!

Condolences

Our school community was devastated to hear of the death of Helen O'Brien. She was a valuable member of our community of parents for eight years until earlier this year. Helen was a proud mum, very supportive of her boys and of all aspects of school life. We would like to express our deepest sympathies to her family and friends and let them know that we're thinking of them in this distressing time.

Attendance

Congratulations to RR who were the highest attending class last week with 98.9% attendance!

The overall attendance was 97% which is above the national average.
