

Soweto—South Africa

FACTS

South Africa is the southern most country in the continent of Africa

Soweto is a township in South Africa

Soweto is an urban settlement or 'township' in South Africa, southwest of Johannesburg, with a population of approximately 1.3 million.

Soweto is composed of 26 small independent townships.

Physical Features - Mountains, vegetation

Human features of Soweto – highway, railway, houses, matchbox houses, shacks, shops, shopping malls, Orlando Towers.

Weather - Soweto's summer lasts from September through April while its winter lasts from May to August. In Soweto, it is generally mild and sunny throughout the year.

However, it can get very hot during Summer.

Nelson Mandela lived in Soweto 1946 until 1962

Orlando Towers

Matchbox houses

Shacks

Nelson Mandela's House