Roof Work Update

We have been notified by the contractors carrying out the roof works that they will be erecting the scaffolding from Monday 4th November.

The first section to be completed will be at the side of the school by the willow garden leading round to the KS2 entrance.

The scaffolding will be cordoned off but please take care when walking around the school grounds.

This week in 4W...

We have been notified by the contractors This week in 4W we have started looking at 4 digit addition and subtraction. Leading on from some excellent work on rounding numbers last week we have begun to 4 digit problems.

In science we have been comparing the diets of humans to other animals and comparing the nutrients they get from their diets. We have begun to look at the human skeleton and discussing what the functions are of our skeleton.

Our English work is also looking in depth to an Arctic animal in preparation for creating a non-chronological report next week.

Finally, Mr Noble came to 4W with a problem last week, he is struggling to open the classrooms on these dark morning at the moment so have tasked us with creating him something to help him see in the mornings. Therefore, we have started to design a torch to meet the needs of Mr Noble and we look forward to building them in the coming weeks during our DT lessons.
