

Alderman Bolton Newsletter

This week in...

This week in Class RF we have been busy. The chicks have grown a lot and have been trying to fly away. On Tuesday we invited friends and family in to meet the chicks. It was a lovely afternoon where we presented our chick diary, our research about other animals that lay eggs and the life cycle of a hen. Thank you to everyone for coming.

Last week we planted some space seeds and these have now started growing. We are a bit worried in case they grow into aliens!

With the lovely weather this week, the children have chosen to spend a lot of time learning in our outdoor provision. They liked making things in the construction area such as an ice-cream van, boat or fire engine. They also spent time with the physical trolley to make obstacle courses.

Our rhyme of the week this week has been 'The Tadpole' the children have enjoyed learning this rhyme and especially enjoyed listening to the book 'Tadpole's Promise' by Jeanne Willis.

Book Review of the Week

Book Review by Chloe Lyons

Title: Head Kid

Author: David Baddiel

This book is about a head teacher called Mr. Carter and a child called Ryan Ward. Ryan is the naughtiest kid in the school and Ofsted are coming to his school! At first, there was a different head teacher, but Ryan was so naughty and the head teacher walked out! Now Mr. Carter is in charge and everyone is scared of him until him and Ryan swap bodies!

I would recommend this book as it is a good quality, hilarious book which you can definitely laugh at! I would read this book over and over again if I could!

Spring Spectacular

Year 5 joined Sir Thomas Boteler CofE High School on Thursday in their annual Spring Spectacular concert. At the Parr Hall, they performed 2 of George Ezra's popular hits, 'Shotgun' and 'Budapest'.
